Cindy Corcoran – ISS Updates

- United Way Kickoff was Wednesday, Oct. 11th at RCMS.
 - Thank you to RCMS for their hospitality.
 - Reminder that your UW Campaigns are off and running. Please work with your campaign coordinators to decide in what ways you can assist them in their school level campaigns.
 - United Way Luncheon and 50/50- Today after the Administrator's Meeting – We hope our administrators know how much we appreciate them.
 - United Way 50/50 in November and our Silent Auction will be November 16th here at CO.
- Chronic Absences – Attendance Counts PDF for Administrators to review in Canvas as well as a link in this document. School DOP's and SW have unpacked this information, but it will be important for administrators to consider how to battle chronic absenteeism.

- Discipline Task Force – Meeting Wednesday, Oct. 25th to review the first 9 weeks’ worth of Discipline Data. Considerations around equity and around disproportionality should always be a focus as you work with your school improvement teams.
- FYI – Reminder to our HS - Distribution of Non-Instructional Materials – High Schools – November 7th
- Restraining Students Document for submissions in PowerSchool. Posted on Canvas for you. Just a reminder that you should contact Stephanie Moore for reporting purposes when students have had to be physically restrained.
- CPR/AED 19th
 - Session 1: Scheduled for today
 - Session 2: Scheduled for October 30th at RCHS

Board Policy – 5015 – School Volunteers

- Instead of Suspension: Alternative Strategies For Effective School Discipline - PDF
- The Shame of Shaming (link) – 3 criteria
 1. Public criticism that has to do with,
 2. A breach of accepted norms,
 3. That is carried out by someone in a position of legitimate authority.
